THE RUBBER B'S
EDITOR'S NOTES

TOM & BARB BELONGIA, EDITORS

It's hard to believe that our summer is coming to an end. The typical autumn activities of Wheels n' Wings, our Fish n' Chips and Fall Color Tours are in the very foreseeable future. Where did all the time go to get those summer projects done? But we love the fall's milder weather and clear days. Hopefully this season will move slower or we'll soon have to get started on those last winter projects that weren't completed.

We have another photo packed issue thanks to the work of Bob "Andy" Anderson. Perhaps at this year's annual meeting we can "vote" to get him an official Press Pass for club events.

There are many events forthcoming in October. Please remember to get us all the details no later than September 15th so they can be included in next month's edition and highlighted on the front page of The Gazette.

It's hard to believe that it has been almost four years since we "volunteered" to be the editors of The MMGG Gazette. Tom has always been the lead person, fitting the content (articles and photos) and arranging the pages. Barb has always been the clean up person, filling in the blanks, editing each article and writing when spaces need to be filled. It's been a fun job — but one that has its own pressure and, of course, there are the deadlines. It is with a heavy heart that we tendered our resignation as The Gazette editors recently with Dick Wallrich. Honestly we need a break. So we'll finish out this year and work with the new editor(s) to help them publish their first few editions. So if you feel creative, have a little extra time on your hands and / or like computer things, please volunteer to be the new editors. Keeping the club informed on activities is a very necessary activity. Hopefully you will enjoy as much as we have. Safety Fast from your editors!

Need Car Storage ?

What we have to offer is classic car storage on winter and summer storage contracts. The storage facility is heated, and secured through a computer controlled key access system. Each participant will have their own card and 24/7 access to their vehicle. Our costs are competitive (only $475 for a 6-month winter contract from November 1st to April 30th), and our facility is clean and tenanted by fellow classic car owners and several medical doctors who use the top level of our four story facility as indoor parking for their respective medical practices.

If you or anyone with an MG ever wishes to tour our facility, we'll be more than happy to set something up, as we are very proud of the premium spaces and facility we that have to offer.

Head Gaskets      To be more specific, how to not have a blown head gasket.

TECH TIP: by Ernie West

As simple as it sounds (just bolt the head to the block) it's more than that. And the more sophisticated the engine, the more critical small details become. I recently became the victim of a blown head gasket with my 907 Lotus engine, 230 miles from home naturally. Like in most cases there was no one obvious cause. In my case I'll admit to ignorance. I didn't know specs like the latest torque figures, the latest torque sequence, the correct tool (a torque angle gauge), and the fact that on this engine you DON'T re torque the head after 1,000 miles.

So in summary let me emphasize that you bone up on all of the latest factory specs for your engine. For instance if your factory manual is twenty years old, the factory may have changed its mind (they call it updating) several times already. That plus as time goes along head gasket materials change and the old recommendation to re torque the head after a specific time might actually be detrimental. Also using a torq angle gauge is getting to be more and more accepted as the preferred method of tightening head nuts or bolts. Of course the old standard rules of having head bolt holes clean so the bolts don't bottom against rust and having all of the threads clean and properly lubricated (or not) still apply, along with the obvious, that the head and block surfaces must be flat or within factory specs for warp.

And one last thing. If your head has washers under the stud nuts or bolts make sure they all fit and are the correct thickness. I had one oddball washer on one stud right where the gasket blew. Yep, I still don't know for sure why it blew.      Safe Motoring!!! Dead Lake Motors
